

Kim Kwang-sop

Current position:
DPRK Ambassador to the Federal Republic of Austria

Born: 15 January 1952, Chongjin, North Hamgyong

Family: Ambassador Kim is married to Kim Kyong-chin, Kim Il-sung's oldest child with second wife, Kim Song-ae. It is not presently known whether they have children.

Education:
baccalaureate, Economics, Kim Il-sung Univeristy

Positions held:

1977: (December) Vice Chair, Kim Il-sung Youth League

1979: (April) Deputy Chair, International Students Union, Czechoslovakia

1982: (April) Vice Chair, Committee for Cultural Relations with Foreign Countries

1984: (December) DPRK Ambassador to Czechoslovakia

1987: Professor, Economics, Kim Il-sung University

1990: (November) At-Large DPRK Ambassador, Central and East Europe

1993: (February) Appointed, DPRK Ambassador to the Federal Republic of Austria

In 2009, Ambassador Kim became the dean of the diplomatic delegation in Austria, a UN city. Ambassador Kim has some institutional ties to Kwon Yong-rok who resides in Vienna and manages Kim Family financial accounts and Third Floor financial activities in Austria.