

Kim Rak-hui

Current positions:

Chief Secretary, South Hwanghae KWP Committee

Member, KWP Central Committee

Delegate (deputy) 12th Supreme People's Assembly (Representing Electoral District #312)

Born: 1932, Kaechon, South Pyongan Province

Positions held:

Kim Rak-hui is considered a hero of the Victorious Fatherland Liberation (Korean) War because of her role as a farmer.

1953: (August) General Manager, Ponghwa Agricultural Cooperative

1962: (September) Chair, Ponghwa Agricultural Cooperative
(October) Delegate (deputy), 3rd SPA

1967: (November) Delegate (deputy) 4th SPA

1970: (November) Elected, Member, KWP Central Committee

1972: (December) Delegate (deputy), 5th SPA

1977: (November) Delegate (deputy), 6th SPA

1980: (October) Elected, Alternate Member, KWP Central Committee

1984: (November) Chair, Kaesong Municipal People's Committee

1990: (April) Chair, South Pyongan Rural Management Committee

1994: (July) Member, Kim Il-sung Funeral Committee

1995: (February) Member, O Jin-u Funeral Committee

1997: (September) Made advisory chair of the South Pyongan Rural Management Committee

2003: (September) Delegate (deputy), 11th SPA

2005: (June) Chief Secretary, South Hwanghae KWP Provincial Committee

2009: (April) Delegate (deputy), 12th SPA (Representing Electoral District #312)